

Santa Cruz Island

Camp Out, Snorkel, Hike, Kayak
June 5th-8th, 2009

Begin with a beautiful one hour boat ride escorted by playful dolphins, the wind in your hair and the sea all around you. The excitement builds as we spot land in the distance -our new, essentially uninhabited island home. Spend a relaxing weekend at Scorpion Ranch, in a protected canyon with towering eucalyptus trees on one of the the jewels of Channel Islands National Park.

Discover what California was like during an earlier time as we experience pristine, breathtaking scenery and explore a historic Californian island ranch. Glide across the shoreline in a kayak exploring giant sea caves or find a secluded beach to bathe in the sun.

Amenities: Camping conditions are primitive. Sites are equipped with picnic tables, water and pit toilets. No trash containers are provided; campers must pack out their own trash. No campfires are permitted due to the high fire danger. The campground is located 1/2 mile from the landing over flat terrain.

What to Bring: Tent, sleeping bag and pad, blanket, sun shower, food and cooking utensils, potluck dish for Saturday night, water container, water flavoring packets, day pack, hiking boots, sunscreen, swim suit, snorkel, mask and the ten essentials. Label all gear with your name. Pack everything within gear bags, no loose items. PACK LIGHTLY since you will be carrying your equipment 1/2 mile to our camp site. Try to pack the most minimal amount for a good time! Treat this like a backpacking trip. If your packing fuel, label it with your name and island.

What Not to Bring: Items weighing more than 45lbs per packed item. including ice chest, no items stored in paper bags, carts or wagons, no loose gear or glass containers. Take only what you need, Pack it in-Pack in OUT.

Kayak Use: We will have access to several single kayaks on Saturday and Sunday to be shared by anyone on the trip. Please see the video demonstration at the Channel Islands Kayak Center if you intend to use a kayak

Time of Departure: The boat leaves at 12 pm on Friday, June 5th. You must be at the dock ONE HOUR BEFORE DEPARTURE at 11 am. Don't be late. The return boat leaves the island at 4:00pm on Monday, June 8th and arrives in Ventura Harbor at approximately 5:00 pm. There are two boat arrivals and departures daily, if you plan on arriving or departing the island at a time other than with the group, please speak with Daniel so we can arrange for your passage.
