Great Outdoors Conference October 15-17, 2014

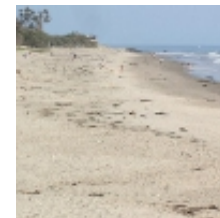

You still have time to sign up for Conference, a fun weekend on beautiful Carpinteria State Beach at an exceptional price.

Provided Meals: Friday night "tea," Continental Breakfast Saturday and Sunday, Hoedown Dinner on Saturday.

Bring: 1 bundle of firewood/person, "Country" Dessert to share Saturday night, pumpkin to carve (optional), ratty blue jeans (optional)

There will be three hikes for the Conference attendees. Two will be "nature walks" to view interesting and beautiful features of the Carpinteria shoreline and a longer hike taking us away from the shore and into the nearby foothills.

Palos Verdes Day Hike Sunday, November 16, 2014

November can be beautiful in Southern California. Near the ocean, the air is clear and cool. Join us for a Day Hike in Palos Verdes.

From about 1,200 feet above the ocean, we will follow the Burma Road, eventually descending to the beach at Abalone Cove. We can explore the tidal pools there. Often, sea lions are lounging on the rocks. There are two caves in the rocks. One of the caves goes through the promontory above, and the waves crash into each other from opposite directions.

On our ascent, we will again have panoramic views of the ocean. Wildlife abounds in the area
