Peterson Auto Museum
Saturday, December 17, 2016, 10:00 AM

Great Outdoors members & friends are invited to join in a Field Trip event to the redesigned Petersen Automobile Museum for a fun day at this great Los Angeles treasure!

The Petersen Automotive Museum (which has been touted as "The World's Greatest Car Museum") is an orgy of autos in a 100,000 square foot venue, featuring historic car exhibits meant to show us how the automobile has influenced American culture.

The Museum has more than 300 vehicles in storage and also showcases cars on loan from other collections. But you'll never see them all in once visit. The Museum only features about 150 vehicles at a time in special themed exhibitions.

What to See there! Twenty-five new Galleries of rotated exhibits of approximately 150 Vehicles on three floors or over 100K Sq. Ft.; Forenza Motor Sport Racing; Scheduled Vault Tours; a large Museum Store; Vault Tours are no additional charge, but REQUIRE the purchase of a General Admission Ticket prior to selecting your timed Reservation.

A new Exhibit opened on October 23, 2016 "The Art of the Bugatti": For over 100 years, the extraordinarily gifted Bugatti family has produced "art" that the world has come to prize and celebrate.
